

St George's Day on April 23rd at 7pm.

The Crusaders are coming for one night only! It is not an invasion! It is entertainment.

Many years ago the churches were the centre of activity for the community it served.

This year, 2010, there are celebrations for St George's Day with a difference, being planned in the village. Everyone is invited, if you feel patriotic, and you may have a flag, bring it to wave. It is not a service of worship, it is celebration of the entertaining talent that there is in the village. Some of the schoolchildren are going to give a short story of St George. Grown up's are going to continue with various other serious and light hearted entertainment throughout the show.

Henry V and Queen Elizabeth 1st, Noel Coward, in a dressing gown? Albert and the Lion and a chance to see "Joyce Grenfell" and more, and Adrian Edwards playing his trumpet.

The crusaders hope you will come and have much merriment. There will be light refreshments, including pasties. Afterwards possibly another impromptu sing song with Benjie round the piano if you still feel like it.

Admission is free, but a retiring collection will be taken for St George's Church in Baghdad.

Come and have fun in St Mary's April 23rd at 7pm, if you can let Kate Inniss know if you are coming on 231 234, it will be useful for catering.

(We don't want to be short of pasties.)
